Photographs and Videoing
During the year many occasions arise when photographs or videos are taken of children participating in activities such as concerts, carnivals and special events. These pictures can be used in our Noticeboard, on the web, displays in the foyer, class posters and displays and on some occasions in local media.
Photographs in Noticeboard and on the Website will be tagged with first names only.
Students will at times participate in video conferencing with other schools. Each year the school has class photographs taken by a professional company and a child’s name is published on this photo.
Please indicate your permission for:
Photographs and videoing-
Publication of photograph or videos-
Video conferencing lessons-
School photographs by professional company-
Should you elect not to give permission your child needs to know of your decision so they can remind the teacher should the need arise.
