

THE SUPPORT UNIT

We have three classes for children with moderate of severe intellectual disabilities. Although many of the students are transported from different suburbs they are still enrolled in our school and their families are part of our school community. Some integration into mainstream classes occurs with teacher or teacher's aide support.